

THE DENTAL ADVISOR

TM

For Immediate Release
May 4, 2016

THE DENTAL ADVISOR (Ann Arbor, Michigan) is pleased to announce changes in our team! Peri Nelson has assumed the role of Assistant Director of Infection Control. Ms. Nelson has been working closely as a Research Associate with Dr. John Molinari in our Ann Arbor, Michigan offices. She has led the team on education of Dental Assistants and Dental Hygienists on proper infection control methods, specifically waterline treatment in the dental practice. She has co-authored numerous scientific posters and presentations, as well as research in conjunction with Dr. Molinari. Peri is actively lecturing and training dental professionals as well as consulting with manufacturers and distributors in the area of infection control.

Peri graduated from the University of Michigan in 2003 with a Bachelor of Science in Neuroscience and Biology. Her research experience is in the fields of microbiology, genetics, neuroscience and biomaterials. She is an active member of OSAP.

In addition, Dr. Fiona Collins has joined our team. She will be working closely with us on upcoming issues of THE DENTAL ADVISOR as a consulting Associate Editor, collaborating with our research laboratories, and is available for speaking and training. Fiona is a published author, speaker, trainer and consultant. Her main areas of interest are infection control, dental caries, biofilm, oral disease prevention and dental materials. Fiona is a member of the American Dental Association, AAMI and OSAP, an ADA representative to AAMI, and a Fellow of the Pierre Fauchard Academy.

Dr. Collins graduated as a general dentist from the University of Glasgow (Scotland), and holds an MBA and an MA from Boston University.

Dr. John Molinari is relocating to California, and will continue to lead our Infection Control Department. He will be working with both Peri and Dr. Collins on corporate training and continuing education, as well as co-authorship of scientific papers, and research performed at THE DENTAL ADVISOR. He is available for speaking and training programs; interested parties should contact Mary Yakas at mary@dentaladvisor.com.
